

May 8 & 9, 2010

Regional Park

3770 Richardson Drive in Auburn, CA

Gates open at 10 a.m. daily

Fun children's activities

Live music

Immersive historical experience

Delicious food

Beautiful Wares

Exciting Entertainment

Abundant beverages

Lords and Ladies

Merchants and Peasants

Thrilling fencers

And so much more!

Enjoy a welcoming and educational day that celebrates a weekend in time from the reign of Queen Elizabeth I. Designed as a replica of a English town in the late 1500's, Cain's Crossing is set along a trade route where peoples from countries near and far gather to offer food and drink and wares to the visitors who come to enjoy the merriment of this festive occasion.

A family friendly faire, Cain's Crossing is the perfect place to introduce children to culture and world history in a fun, interactive setting. It's also the perfect place for adults to enjoy music, fine food and merriment under shade trees at the entertainment stage or beer and wine garden.

Lastly and quite importantly, Cain's Crossing Renaissance Faire raises needed funds for students in the surrounding communities. Your merriment and enjoyment will also bring the joy of education to students of all ages.

For information and sponsorship details:

www.cainscrossing.org

info@cainscrossing.org